The Lady at the Well The Third Sunday of Lent

One of the best known religious poems in the English language is The Hound of Heaven. It was written by Francis Thompson, who tried to run away from God. He compares God to a hound dog chasing a soul. It's the story of Thompson's own life. As a boy he intended to become a priest but his laziness led his father to enroll young Francis in a medical school. He contracted the opium habit that almost wrecked his mind and body. He became a beggar, slinking about the slums, earning a lean living by shining shoes, selling matches, and holding horses. Through the kindness of a poor girl, Thompson met Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Meynell, who recognized his talent and inner goodness. They helped him get caught by God's love. How he tried to run away from God, how God "hunted" him, how divine love caught up with him - these are the themes of this stirring poem.

The outstanding proof of God's love for us is expressed in today's gospel. The loving encounter with Jesus changes the life of the Samaritan woman at the well. We need to allow Jesus free entry into our personal lives. We need to turn to Jesus who loves us with unconditional love, no matter how far away we are from Him. We all face moments when guilt plagues us and we are upset for falling for the same temptations again and again; when we make choices that turn out to be all wrong; when our relationships with others fall in a heap; when we feel lonely, sick and tired of the way people are treating us; when we are depressed and upset and can't see anything good in ourselves; and for days that go by without a word of prayer; when all we feel is failure and defeat. During such moments it is great to read a story about Jesus and his love and acceptance of the woman at the well. Let us rest assured that Jesus is there to accept us warmly and help us to see that he will give us the strength and the power we need to overcome whatever it is that is grieving us. God bless you! Fr. Leo
